	3. Conduct periodic actuarial study to assess the SIF's capability; and	submit. The Commission is set to study carefully the investment scheme for the ECC SIF. Actuarial studies have been continuously conducted by both Systems. Copies of their reports are submitted to the Commission for information and comments. In August 2013, the GSIS presented to the Board the 2013 Actuarial Study on the Employees' Compensation Insurance Fund which shows that the GSIS –managed State Insurance Fund (SIF). The study showed that the Fund can finance the increase of EC benefits for the public sector on the resumption of the payment of pensions to previously suspended pensioners and the resumption of the medical reimbursement to EC disability pensioners. The increase in funeral benefits to P20,000, and the 10% across-the-board increase in pension benefits is also viable but deferred in the meantime; Upon implementation of these benefit increases, a periodic review of the viability of the fund will be undertaken, preferably once in every 3 years, or as often as may be necessary. In April 2013, SSS SVP Rizaldy Capulong presented to the Commission the Status of
