

Atty. DIONISIO CHAN EBDANE, JR., CPA, CESO IV
Senior Vice President, Visayas and Mindanao Operations Group
Government Service Insurance System

====

He obtained a degree in Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, major in Accounting, at the Philippine School of Business Administration in Manila. He finished his accounting course after only three and a half years and became a Certified Public Accountant at age 20.

While working as Internal Auditor with a private universal bank in Makati City, he studied law on evening class at the Manuel L. Quezon University in Manila. Few months after his graduation from law school in 1992, he passed the Philippine Bar Examinations.

After working with the private banking sector for ten years, he joined the Supreme Court of the Philippines in 1994 assigned as Branch Clerk of Court for the Branch 55 of the Regional Trial Court of Manila.

In 1995, he transferred to the Philippine Postal Corporation as Department Manager for its Investment Management Department. While occupying the position of Assistant Postmaster General for Finance, he left the postal service in July 1998 to join a promising career with the Government Service Insurance System.

Shortly after he joined the GSIS in 1998, he was assigned as team leader for various special projects, and was soon promoted as Department Manager in 2001, and eventually as Vice President in 2006. He is now the Senior Vice President for GSIS Operations in the Visayas and Mindanao area.

He is an alumnus of the Singapore Cooperation Scholarship Program where he finished a short course on social security administration.

He attended various executive development and management courses sponsored by the International Social Security Association (ISSA), International Labor Organization (ILO) and the Development Academy of the Philippines (DAP).

He represented GSIS in international negotiations for the purpose of concluding social security agreements with various countries such as Japan, Germany, Portugal, France, Spain and others.

He currently seats as member-designate in the Governing Board of Employees Compensation Commission (ECC) and Occupational Safety and Health Commission (OSHC).

He is a member of PICPA Western Metro Manila Chapter and Integrated Bar of the Philippines, Makati Chapter.