Fisherman turns entrepreneur with ECC KaGabay	Fisherman Mauricio Cuerpo lost his right hand last year when his hand was strapped by the rope of the speed boat while preparing to sail in South Pacific Ocean. Upon the advice of his friend, he filed an Employees' Compensation claim and received 22 months of permanent partial disability pension amounting to P63, 822.64. Aside from his PPD benefits, he was also granted 16 sessions of free physical therapy and 5 sessions of occupational therapy. A start-your-own-business-enterprise seminar and soap making training were also provided to him for free by the Employees' Compensation Commission under the Katulong at Gabay sa Manggagawang may Kapansanan (KaGabay) Program. Cuerpo is very grateful that ECC is always there to lend a helping hand to persons with work-related disabilities like him. "If not for ECC, I may still be lost right now. ECC guides me on how to move on with my life and to make it better," Cuerpo added. Cuerpo used the pension he received from ECC to put up a sari-sari store where he currently earns P8, 000 a month. He is planning to start a small soap making business after his SYOBE seminar.
ECC finds new champion for its Ka-Gabay Program	Ormoc City – The Employees' Compensation Commission has formally forged partnerships with the OSPA Farmer's Medical Center for the strengthening of the Katulong at Gabaysa Manggagawang may Kapansanan Program in Region 8. Starting November this year, free rehabilitation services can be availed by persons with work-related disabilities with approved claims under the
